Job Title: First Aid Training Team Leader
Group: Engagement and Enterprise
Location: Hamilton
Reports to: Manager Training
Position status: Full-time
Version date: 24 August 2024

OUR PURPOSE

New Zealand Red Cross (NZRC) has always been about good people doing good things. We're part of the world's largest humanitarian network, helping vulnerable people and those affected by disaster and conflicts. We've been working in New Zealand for more than a century and today you'll find us lending a hand in communities throughout Aotearoa New Zealand – we're here for good.

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

We are committed to providing an environment where all people feel welcomed, valued and seen in their identities.

THE TREATY OF WAITANGI

New Zealand Red Cross is working towards understanding our obligations under the Te Tiriti o Waitangi principles. New Zealand Red Cross engagement with Te Tiriti o Waitangi is recognised as ethical best practice in relation to the application of the Red Cross Fundamental Principles and the desire of New Zealand Red Cross people to build meaningful relationships with Māori as tāngata whenua.

WHAT WE STAND FOR

The Red Cross Fundamental Principles guide all we do, whether we're helping people in New Zealand communities or providing urgent relief in an international disaster.

ABOUT THE GROUP

Engagement and Enterprise

The Engagement and Enterprise Group has four core functions. The Communications, Marketing and Engagement directorate supports and enables organisational communications (both internal and external) as well as raising public awareness. The Philanthropy directorate supports and enables organisational fundraising efforts across a portfolio of different fundraising products and activities. The First Aid directorate is responsible for the creation of revenue through the delivery of first aid training and the sale of first aid related products. The Retail directorate is responsible for the creation of revenue through the sale of donated products through about 50 Red Cross shops across the country.

POSITION PURPOSE

Reporting directly to the Manager Training (Region), the role is a mentor and leader of a team of instructors within the region. The purpose of the role is to ensure that instructors are competent and capable of delivering courses, and to support the Manager Training in the region in allocating/scheduling work to cover all scheduled courses. It will liaise closely with the Manager Training in the region to maintain an effective pool of qualified instructors to meet demand.

The First Aid Training Team Leader will ensure that our clients enjoy a quality training experience, by supporting the training team with professional development, maintaining standards and compliance with all policies; and supporting the Manager Training in designing rosters and schedules for the efficient operations in utilising instructors and meeting course demand.

The person in the role will also be a fully competent first aid trainer and be available to teach courses regularly and when required. They may also be required from time to time to represent New Zealand Red Cross as a technically professional person that can communicate effectively regarding first aid training matters, first aid products and AEDs.

- Meet the minimum requirements of being a Level 2 First Aid Instructor, and/or where required, qualified as a Level 3 Instructors.
- Support the Manager Training and National Manager Training Operations with specific projects and tasks from time to time.

Keep the Manager Training informed of any issues that may affect the ongoing performance of each instructor, and provide support and assistance where appropriate.

Assist other areas with instructor availability if required and support other areas should they seek your support.

- Support the Manager Training in your region in rostering of Instructors for all courses within your regional area of responsibility.

Compliance

- Ensure that all requested and individual training is completed in a timely manner.
- Ensure you and all staff comply with Red Cross Total Quality Management System (TQMS), operational guidelines and policies & procedures.

People management

- Foster a people-first culture. Lead, inspire and actively support your team to ensure cooperative working relationships through ongoing coaching, communication and early intervention on people related issues.
- Support the recruitment of new instructors as requested by your manager.
- Support the Manager Training in your region in the development of direct staff including induction, training, certification and compliance.
- Supervise the quarterly performance reviews for Instructors in your team to develop and maintain performance of teams and individuals.
- Hold regular team meetings.

HEALTH SAFETY AND WELLBEING

- Proactively ensure your actions or omissions do not adversely affect your health, safety, and well-being (HSW) or that of others.
- Participate in HSW induction, training, programmes and activities.
- Follow all reasonable instructions to comply with HSW legislation and regulations.
- Follow NZRC HSW policies, standards and procedures.
- Do not undertake any activities you are not adequately trained for.
- Use designated personal protective equipment (PPE) for specific work activities.
