Job Title: Settlement Youth Worker
Group: Migration
Location: Wellington
Reports to: Pathways to Settlement Manager
Position status: Permanent, Full-time
Version date: 22 September 2022

OUR PURPOSE

New Zealand Red Cross (NZRC) has always been about good people doing good things. We're part of the world's largest humanitarian network, helping vulnerable people and those affected by disaster and conflicts. We've been working in New Zealand for more than a century and today you'll find us lending a hand in communities throughout Aotearoa New Zealand – we're here for good.

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

We are committed to providing an environment where all people feel welcomed, valued and seen in their identities.

THE TREATY OF WAITANGI

New Zealand Red Cross is working towards understanding our obligations under the Te Tiriti o Waitangi principles. New Zealand Red Cross engagement with Te Tiriti o Waitangi is recognised as ethical best practice in relation to the application of the Red Cross Fundamental Principles and the desire of New Zealand Red Cross people to build meaningful relationships with Māori as tāngata whenua.

WHAT WE STAND FOR

The Red Cross Fundamental Principles guide all we do, whether we're helping people in New Zealand communities or providing urgent relief in an international disaster.

ABOUT THE GROUP

Migration

The Migration Group provides community refugee settlement programmes in Aotearoa New Zealand, supporting and empowering new Kiwis as they rebuild their lives here. We support former refugees and vulnerable migrants through several programmes, including Pathways to Settlement, Pathways to Employment and Refugee Trauma Recovery which provides specialist mental health services to former refugees. The Migration group also supports other migrants within Aotearoa New Zealand when there is a humanitarian need, including convention refugees and asylum seekers who are not part of the quota programme and emergency humanitarian responses.

POSITION PURPOSE

The Settlement Youth Worker provides specialised, tailored support for young people who are settling in New Zealand as part of the refugee quota. They support young people in building social networks, navigating the education system and participating in extra-curriculum activities.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Directly support newly arrived young former refugees in the region

- Assist young people to develop and achieve their settlement goals, including by undertaking home visits
- Assist with settlement tasks as required, in conjunction with volunteers and other Migration employees
- Assist youth and their families to connect with local youth services and activities
- Advocate on behalf of young people to ensure access to services and resources
- Maintain all required documentation, including regularly updated case notes
- Identify young people in crisis or with complex needs and refer to the appropriate Migration team member

2. Support the wider Migration team with development of tailored youth support

- Champion settlement best practice for young people within NZRC
- Provide advice and guidance on youth culture and issues to NZRC settlement teams
- Maintain networks with youth-specific agencies and services that young people and their families can access
- Contribute to development and training of mainstream service providers to promote full accessibility for young people, especially regarding youth settlement
- Identify improvements in settlement practices that would enhance the experience of young people settling in NZ
- Contribute to the implementation of the National Youth Action Plan

3. Settlement and Orientation Programmes in the Community

- Run youth orientation sessions for each refugee intake
- Assist with settlement orientation programmes
- Coordinate and run any identified youth activities aimed at supporting integration and youth engagement

HEALTH SAFETY AND WELLBEING

- Proactively ensure your actions or omissions do not adversely affect the Health, Safety and Wellbeing (HSW) of yourself or others.
- Participate in HSW induction, training, programmes and activities.
- Follow all reasonable instructions to comply with HSW legislation and regulations.
- Follow NZRC HSW policies, standards and procedures.
- Do not undertake any activities you are not adequately trained for.
- Use designated personal protective equipment (PPE) for specific work activities.
- Report hazards/risks, incidents and near misses as soon as possible after the event.
